Hearing Well at AMC is the theme for second hour TODAY. The focus will be on how speakers in our worship and meetings can include those with hearing loss; how to use the hearing assistance that AMC provides; and other information about hearing loss and its impacts. This will be of special interest to speakers, those with impaired hearing, their family and friends. David Powell and Glen Gilbert are the presenters.

Update your contact information with Assembly by checking on rolling cart in the gathering space TODAY. If info is incorrect or missing, correct it on the clipboard. Also, Paul Meyer Reimer will be taking pictures for the photo directory TODAY, Sept 1 and 8. Find him if you'd like your picture added or updated, or you can email a digital copy of a photo you already have to office@assemblymennonite.org.

The Privileges of the Child in Assembly: 2. To wander among us during worship being the responsibility of each of us. As a community of faith, our care and support for each other extends into our corporate worship. All participants can help make worship a good place for children and families by caring for children and supporting parents. Invite a child to sit with you during worship, help a child find a song in the hymnal, or offer to hold a baby.

Help put Care Packs together this Tue, Aug 27, 7pm, at Susan Mark Landis' home (maps in her mailbox). All genders and most ages are welcome. Please let Susan know if you are coming. Donations of wrapped, unscented products are welcome, as is money.

The time you've been holding your breath for has arrived! Our turn to serve our neighbors with Interfaith Hospitality Network is nearly here. We are serving Sept 2, 3, and 5. Please see the sign up list on the Assembly website, <https://assemblymennonite.org/goshen-interfaith-hospitality-network/>, and let Susan know when you'd like to serve a meal (prepared by Elkhart Faith Mission) or host an evening. (repeat) Men and Boys Retreat: Oct 18-20 I Am: Radical Self-Awareness. Who are you? If you peel back the layers of your job, education and family responsibilities, what parts of your identity are you left with? We move through the world, building relationships, seeking careers or starting families without taking the time to get to know the most important person in our lives: ourselves. Getting to know ourselves means we've got to ask difficult questions, face uncomfortable or hidden truths and be willing to accept both the light and darkness within. Sounds hard right? It is, but the reward is a sense of healing, liberty, and power that we thought out of reach. The key to unlocking our greatest potential and living into our divine purpose is radical self-awareness. This is the work that brought Jesus to the cross and this is the work that will transform our lives, communities, and potentially the world. Are you ready to know who you are? Speaker: Benjamin J. Tapper is a chaplain for Indiana University Health as well as the co-founder of the Hear Me Project. Ben manages a blog called Invisible Truths and has written articles for The Salt Collective, The Mennonite and Christianity Now.
