ANNOUNCEMENTS

assembly life and people

Martha Hanby (Waterford, 1st) turns 7 on Nov 26th! Martha is a great storyteller and likes to hula hoop. She enjoys reading The Boxcar Children and listening to audio books. Martha has a wonderful new bike that she likes to ride and enjoys playing imaginative games with friends and sister. A picture of Martha is here.

Today is the first Sunday of Advent! The Sunday of Hope. This year the Advent planning committee is using Maya Angelou's poetry to speak to the particular and unique convergence of COVID, Advent, Social Injustice and long nights in 2020. The introduction to the Advent theme with preachers and details can be found here. Today we will hear from Carol Good-Elliott. If you want to join the group in the woods Saturday at 4:30 sign up here. There is also an option for children to gather earlier for a story and activity on Saturday in Witmer Woods. Sign up here. On Sunday morning at 11 am we will have 2 "2nd hour" options-a virtual coffee hour and an "Advent in Narnia" for the young and young at heart.

For many of us, this season before Christmas is a season of ramped-up activity. This year we will be joining our scripture throughout the season with the poetry of Maya Angelou. We are using materials from the SALT project out of Indianapolis and have purchased a devotional that you can use along with the season. The devotional includes scripture, poems and practices that are appropriate for individual, family or small group use. Burn the Advent countdown candle each day as you make space for the Christ child this season. Countdown candles and hard copies of the devotional are in a bin outside the front doors of the church. Additionally, a digital copy of the devotional can be found here.

Candle Dipping on Sunday Nov. 29th is an annual tradition for children at Assembly that takes place at Steve Shantz's house (60728 CR 27, Goshen). This year, we will be outside, not be in the garage as physical distancing would be difficult. Wear old and warm clothes, and bring a hot drink if you wish! We will have three time blocks 1,2,3pm sign up for your time block here. This year, parents are expected to stay. If you have any questions, please call Steve at 574-534-5315.

MYF will not be meeting this Sunday (11/29) because of Thanksgiving. Our next planned meeting will be our Christmas Party on Saturday, December 5th from 6-8pm

Christmas cookie exchange. This year we are going to try a surprise cookie exchange. Think something like surprise luncheon and Christmas Caroling combined. There are two ways to participate. The first is to bake and exchange cookies. The second is to let us know if you would like to receive cookies this year but are not up for baking them. If you would like to bake and exchange- you are invited to bake 3 dozen cookies. You will be assigned to 3 households to deliver your cookies and you can also expect to receive 3 dozen cookies from other households. Add a card or a note with your cookies and maybe sing a song when you deliver them! If you would like to be involved Sign up here by December 4th. Instructions will come the following week and cookies are to be delivered sometime on Sunday, December 13th.

Advent Spiral Outdoors Sunday December 20th 4:30, 5:30, 6:30 pm at the meeting house. This is a luminous activity for children. Children are told the story of the light and then get to light and carry their own candles through a spiral of greens. This activity is targeted at children ages 3-11, though older children often find it meaningful. I would encourage Jr youth aged children to sign up for the 6:30 pm time. This year the activity will be outside and adapted to ensure safe COVID practices. Please sign up here.

Christmas Lessons & Carols Service: In this increasingly dark season of an already difficult year we need Christmas more than ever. If you are looking to unleash your creativity to bring some light into this season and celebrate Christmas with your Assembly community the Lessons & Carols Service (December 27th) is your opportunity. We are seeking individuals, families, small groups, pods of creative Assemblyites to contribute to this service. We need "performers" of both the lessons and carols. For the lessons, we are requesting 90 second videos telling the Christmas story: acting, dance, dramatic reading, shadow puppets, playmobile figures, operetta. Use your imagination. For the carols we would like to see a variety of 3 minute videos of ensemble, solo, vocal, and instrumental performances. To sign up follow this google forms link and select the scripture or carol that you would like to contribute no later than December 13th. Send any questions to Erich Miller (kerichmiller@gmail.com), and your completed videos to Becky Snider (rksnider42@gmail.com) by Sunday, December 20th. ~Thanks, Worship Committee.

Small group reps met this week and heard about upcoming Assembly Advent events and opportunity for creative and fun involvement in the Christmas Lessons & Carols. Also offered were small group discussion questions geared to invite deeper conversations. Ask your rep for more information.

Assemblyline submission guidelines and deadline change: Please send your carefully crafted and finished announcements to assemblyline@assemblymennonite.org by Thursday evenings no later than 11pm for inclusion in that week's Assemblyline. Late announcements won't be prioritized.

Share Prayer Requests by filling out the online form at this link. You may continue to do this throughout each week. Prayer requests are sent out to the congregation via the Assembly listserv on Wednesdays.
