Join us for Two Second hour options:

Following a five minute break after worship, there will be two options, you can either join:

“Visio Divina,” led by Kyle Schlabach is a class that will be exploring the images from Voices Together. It will be kid-friendly, all-ages, and very intergenerational. Kids (and adults who want to) will be given the chance to draw their own pictures in response, so paper, crayons, markers, pencils, etc. would be helpful to have. To join this group, head to this address: zoom.us/j/3439448157.

“Podcast and Conversation” led by a rotating group of people will be discussion based. Each week a podcast on a current issue broadly related to social justice and racial justice will be in the Assemblyline, please listen ahead of time and come prepared to discuss. This Sunday, March 14 the Podcast and Conversation second hour class will discuss Philip Metres' work. Metres gave the Goshen College S.A. Yoder Lecture, “The Place Where Peace and Justice Meet in Palestine/Israel.” Read his essay “The Wall of Silence: On Trying to Talk about Palestine, Israel, and the USA” or check out his work on On Being’s Poetry Unbound project. Metres is professor of English and director of the Peace, Justice, and Human Rights program at John Carroll University (and a graduate school friend of Kyle Schlabach and Jessica Baldanzi).

To join this group, simply stay in the main room.

Please read the Assemblyline each week for more important announcements. You can sign up to receive the Assemblyline on the church website, or by contacting the church office.
