Stick around after worship for three different Elective Options. See descriptions and Zoom links below.

Please read the Assemblyline each week for more important announcements. You can sign up to receive the Assemblyline on the church website, or by contacting the church office.

Second Hour Elective and Zoom links:

After the storm: CoVid Wisdom: Led by Rose Stutzman In this intergenerational elective, we will experience art, music, books, and poetry then create something together. What have we learned during the pandemic?

How will we rebuild and reconnect? <https://goshenschools-org.zoom.us/j/94301327860?pwd=ZjEjZnpsOHVzS1BjYlFYVmZuTURCUT09>

Some Assembly Required: Not to be confused with our softball team, this classic Assembly elective will be facilitated by Karl Shelly with guests. All newish attendees - along with anyone newly curious about how Assembly works - are welcome to attend. The six sessions are affectionately titled Creation Stories, What is this place?, This we believe, Is anyone actually in charge here?, Assembly group-think, and Potluck74.

Body Talk. This elective will offer opportunities to in the spirit of sermon response, with time for personal stories and other responses to the morning's theme. Each session will start off with storytellers and then be facilitated for participants to share their stories. For Sermon Response elective: stay in the main Assembly Zoom room.
